School Report.

For the year ending August 31, 1918.

According to a law passed at the last session of the N. H. Legislature the school year was extended, to close Aug. 31, making forty-four weeks in all, and the next year commences Sept. 1, 1918 and ends Aug. 31, 1919. This new year was divided into four terms, two of fourteen and two of eight weeks.

With the exception of two schools where mumps and whooping cough got in, our work was not interrupted by sickness.

With a few exceptions with teachers who taught only a portion of the year, we have been able to secure experienced teachers in all our schools and several with state certificates. We consider that the work accomplished has justified us in our endeavor to employ only teachers with previous experience and good recommendations.

We have closed schools where there were only a few scholars and conveyed them to another school.

The Meadow school which had been closed was reopened in the spring of 1917 with eight scholars, and the Bay school was closed in the spring of 1918 and the scholars conveyed to the Meadow school.

The following teachers have been employed:

Calef Hill, Sara E. Wells; Square, Clara E. Stanton; Hunkins, M. Pearl Colby; Bay, Dorothy Lincoln, Lena B. Morey; Gaza, Rose A. Keanan, Helen R. Smith; Chapel, Maud Z. Tilton, Alice E. Brown, Rose A. Keanan, Alice Shaw; New State, Jennie D. Blake, Vestella Gould, Ruth E. Clark; North Sanbornion, Stella M. Thomas; Meadow, Sadie B. Smith, Doris Foss, Blanch Clark.

We have had sixteen students from our town continuing their education in High schools and Academies.

We call attention to the statistical table and financial report.
